Benefits Summary

(Benefit provisions may vary by state)

Hospitalization Benefits

Hospital Admission

Payable when an insured is admitted to a hospital and confined as an inpatient because of a covered accidental injury or because of a covered sickness. Not payable for confinement to an observation unit, or for emergency room treatment or outpatient treatment.

Hospital Confinement

Payable for each day that an insured is confined to a hospital as an inpatient as the result of a covered accidental injury or because of a covered sickness. If we pay benefits for confinement and the insured becomes confined again within six months because of the same or related condition, we will treat this confinement as the same period of confinement. This benefit is payable for only one hospital confinement at a time even if caused by more than one covered accidental injury, more than one covered sickness, or a covered accidental injury and a covered sickness.

Hospital Intensive Care

Payable for each day that an insured is confined in a hospital intensive care unit because of a covered accidental injury or because of a covered sickness. We will pay benefits for only one confinement in a hospital's intensive care unit at a time, even if it is caused by more than one covered accidental injury, more than one covered sickness or a covered accidental injury and a covered sickness. If we pay benefits for confinement in a hospital's intensive care unit and an insured becomes confined to a hospital's intensive care unit again within six months because of the same or related condition, we will treat this confinement as the same period of confinement.

Intermediate Intensive Care Step-Down Unit

Payable for each day that an insured is confined in an intermediate intensive care step-down unit because of a covered accidental injury or because of a covered sickness. We will pay benefits for only one confinement in an intermediate intensive care step-down unit at a time, even if it is caused by more than one covered accidental injury, more than one covered sickness or a covered accidental injury and a covered sickness. If we pay benefits for confinement in a hospital's intermediate intensive care step-down unit and an insured becomes confined to a hospital's intermediate intensive care step-down unit again within six months because of the same or related condition, we will treat this confinement as the same period of confinement.

Residents of Massachusetts are eligible for Hospital Admission, Hospital Confinement, Hospital Intensive Care, and Intermediate Intensive Care Step-Down Unit Benefits only.

Notices

This proposal is a brief description of coverage, not a contract. Read your policy and riders (as applicable) carefully for exact plan language, terms, and conditions.

If this coverage will replace any existing individual policy, please be aware that it may be in your employees' best interest to maintain their individual guaranteed-renewable policy.

For residents of New Mexico, we are required to administer some coverages in accordance with the minimum applicable standards of New Mexico law.

Notice to Consumer: The coverages provided by Continental American Insurance Company (CAIC) represent supplemental benefits only. They do not constitute comprehensive health insurance coverage and do not satisfy the requirement of minimum essential coverage under the Affordable Care Act. CAIC coverage is not intended to replace or be issued in lieu of major medical coverage. It is designed to supplement a major medical program. Lack of major medical coverage (or other minimum essential coverage) may result in an additional payment with your taxes.
